

5th Annual
"Come to the River"
Healing Arts Day

at Stephen Foster Folk Culture Center State Park
September 3, 2011 ~ 10-4

"The Nature of Health and Healing"
~Sponsored by Shands of Live Oak~

The waters of the spring on the banks of the Suwannee, now home to Stephen Foster State Park, have been a gathering place of healing for many cultures. Throughout the years the water and its surrounding woods have nourished both body and spirit.

Join us for a day filled with discovering ways to a healthier mind, body and lifestyle.

Educational Seminars

Yoga Workshops

Health Screenings

Arts and Crafts

Blood Mobile

Music Food and More.....

Free admission to the event with paid entrance into the park.

($5.00 per car up to 8 people)

For more information call 386-397-1920

11016 Lillian Saunders Dr ~ White Springs, FL 32096